

- ⌘ The objective of The Winter Youth Golf Tour is to introduce and develop the game while on the course. Also, we want to eliminate any barriers and/or obstacles that are associated with golf, thereby making it more available and appealing to our youngsters.
- ⌘ Family members are urged to join us on Sunday afternoons. We will need two volunteers per group each Sunday to walk with the players to assist in enforcing safety, accurate score keeping, and proper pace.
- ⌘ Parents are urged to caddie and be supportive fans. During play, lessons on swing mechanics are discouraged. Brush up on the caddie skills!
- ⌘ Course rules, etiquette, and safety will be stressed with a big emphasis placed on FUN while playing golf.
- ⌘ Course rotations will be provided at the Parents' Orientation on December 4th. If we experience inclement weather, play decisions will be made on that particular Sunday by 2:00 PM. For information regarding play, if we experience bad weather, call the Recreation Commission at 803-772-3336.
- ⌘ Dress comfortably. In chilly, windy weather, stocking caps, mittens, and insulated underwear are suggested. Also, layered clothing is always appropriate for our climate. Take more than you need, it is easier to cool off than warm up!
- ⌘ All divisions will play the same course on our last day of the Tour. Immediately following play, we will have refreshments and awards.

George Bryan Golf Academy offers year round instruction for juniors, with phases of the game presented through interesting and fun lesson plans. The curriculum benefits all skill levels, from beginners to those who are interested in playing on high school golf teams and obtaining college scholarships.

George Bryan III, founder and Director of Instruction of the Academy, is a graduate of the University of South Carolina and has won tournaments on the amateur and professional levels. He was recognized in 1998 as Carolinas PGA Junior Golf Leader of the Year.

Morris M. Pickens, Ph.D., Sport Psychology, University of Virginia, consultant for numerous amateur and professional golfers on the PGA Tour, Nike Tour, etc., conducts workshops regularly for Academy students and will assist the Winter Tour again this year.
